

2.1 or after becoming 14 years of age, an offense that would be a felony if committed by an 2.2 adult, the juvenile court may enter an order certifying the proceeding for action under the 2.3 laws and court procedures controlling adult criminal violations.

2.4 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2008, and applies to 2.5 offenses committed on or after that date.

2.6 Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 260B.130, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

2.7 Subdivision 1. Designation. A proceeding involving a child alleged to have 2.8 committed a felony offense is an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution if:

2.9 (1) the child was ~~14~~ 13 to 17 years old at the time of the alleged offense, a 2.10 certification hearing was held, and the court designated the proceeding an extended 2.11 jurisdiction juvenile prosecution;

2.12 (2) the child was 16 or 17 years old at the time of the alleged offense; the child is 2.13 alleged to have committed an offense for which the Sentencing Guidelines and applicable 2.14 statutes presume a commitment to prison or to have committed any felony in which the 2.15 child allegedly used a firearm; and the prosecutor designated in the delinquency petition 2.16 that the proceeding is an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution; ~~or~~

2.17 (3) the child was 14 to 17 years old at the time of the alleged offense, the prosecutor
2.18 requested that the proceeding be designated an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution,
2.19 a hearing was held on the issue of designation, and the court designated the proceeding an 2.20 extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution; or

2.21 (4) the child was 13 years old at the time of the alleged offense, the alleged offense
2.22 is a violent juvenile offense as defined in section 260B.007, subdivision 21, the prosecutor
2.23 requested that the proceeding be designated an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution,
2.24 a hearing was held on the issue of designation, and the court designated the proceeding an 2.25 extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution.

2.26 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2008, and applies to 2.27 offenses committed on or after that date.

2.28 Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 260B.141, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

2.29 Subd. 4. Delinquency petition; extended jurisdiction juvenile. When a prosecutor 2.30 files a delinquency petition alleging that a child committed a felony offense for which 2.31 there is a presumptive commitment to prison according to the Sentencing Guidelines 2.32 and applicable statutes or in which the child used a firearm, after reaching the age of 2.33 16 years, the prosecutor shall indicate in the petition whether the prosecutor designates

3.1 the proceeding an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution. When a prosecutor files a 3.2 delinquency petition alleging that a child aged 13 years committed a violent juvenile 3.3 offense as defined in section 260B.007, subdivision 21, or a child aged 14 to 17 years 3.4 committed a felony offense, the prosecutor may request that the court designate the 3.5 proceeding an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution.

3.6 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2008, and applies to
3.7 offenses committed on or after that date.

3.8 Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 260B.198, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

3.9 Subd. 6. Expungement. Except when legal custody is transferred under the 3.10 provisions of subdivision 1, clause (d), or a child is adjudicated delinquent for committing 3.11 a violent juvenile offense as defined in section 260B.007, subdivision 21, the court may 3.12 expunge the adjudication of delinquency at any time that it deems advisable.

3.13 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2008, and applies to 3.14 offenses committed on or after that date.

3.15 Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 609.055, is amended to read:

3.16 609.055 LIABILITY OF CHILDREN.

3.17 Subdivision 1. General rule. Children under the age of ~~14~~ 13 years are incapable of 3.18 committing crime.

3.19 Subd. 2. Adult prosecution. (a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b), 3.20 children of the age of 13 years may be prosecuted for a violent juvenile offense, as defined 3.21 in section 260B.007, subdivision 21, and children of the age of 14 years or over but under 3.22 18 years may be prosecuted for a felony offense, if the alleged violation is duly certified
3.23 for prosecution under the laws and court procedures controlling adult criminal violations
3.24 or may be designated an extended jurisdiction juvenile in accordance with the provisions 3.25 of chapter 260B. A child who is 16 years of age or older but under 18 years of age is 3.26 capable of committing a crime and may be prosecuted for a felony if:

3.27 (1) the child has been previously certified on a felony charge pursuant to a hearing
3.28 under section 260B.125, subdivision 2, or pursuant to the waiver of the right to such a 3.29 hearing, or prosecuted pursuant to this subdivision; and

3.30 (2) the child was convicted of the felony offense or offenses for which the child was 3.31 prosecuted or of a lesser included felony offense.

3.32 (b) A child who is alleged to have committed murder in the first degree after 3.33 becoming 16 years of age is capable of committing a crime and may be prosecuted for

4.1 the felony. This paragraph does not apply to a child alleged to have committed attempted 4.2 murder in the first degree after becoming 16 years of age.

4.3 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2008, and applies to 4.4 offenses committed on or after that date.
