relating to local government; amending certain annexation provisions; extending municipal boundary adjustment advisory task force; amending Minnesota Statutes 2006, sections 414.0325, subdivision 1b; 414.033, subdivisions 2, 13; Laws 2006, chapter 270, article 2, section 1; repealing Minnesota Statutes 2006, sections 414.031, subdivision 8; 414.0325, subdivision 4b; 414.033, subdivision 12; Laws 2006, chapter 270, article 2, section 8.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 414.0325, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. Notice of intent to designate an area. At least ten days before the municipality or township adopts an orderly annexation agreement, a notice of the intent to include property in an orderly annexation area must be published in a newspaper of general circulation in both the township and municipality. The notice must clearly identify the boundaries of the area proposed to be included in the orderly annexation agreement and the date, time, and place of the public informational meeting to be held as provided in section 414.0333. The cost of providing notice must be equally divided between the municipality and the township, unless otherwise agreed upon by the municipality and the township. This subdivision applies only to the initial designation to include property in an orderly annexation area subject to the orderly annexation agreement and not to any subsequent annexation of any property from within the designated orderly annexation area. This subdivision also does not apply when the orderly annexation agreement only designates for immediate annexation property for which all of the property owners have petitioned to be annexed.

2.1 Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 414.033, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

2.2 Subd. 2. Conditions. A municipal council may by ordinance declare land annexed
2.3 to the municipality and any such land is deemed to be urban or suburban in character
2.4 or about to become so if:

2.5 (1) the land is owned by the municipality;

2.6 (2) the land is completely surrounded by land within the municipal limits;

2.7 (3) the land abuts the municipality and the area to be annexed is 120 acres or
2.8 less, and the area to be annexed is not presently served by public wastewater facilities
2.9 or public wastewater facilities are not otherwise available, and the municipality receives
2.10 a petition for annexation from all the property owners of the land. Except as provided
2.11 for by an orderly annexation agreement, ~~the director must not accept a petition from a~~
2.12 ~~property owner for more than one annexation per year of~~ this clause may not be used to
2.13 annex any property contiguous to the parcel any property previously annexed under this
2.14 clause within the preceding 12 months if the property is owned by the same owners; or

2.15 (4) the land has been approved after August 1, 1995, by a preliminary plat or final
2.16 plat for subdivision to provide residential lots that average 21,780 square feet or less in
2.17 area and the land is located within two miles of the municipal limits.

2.18 Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 414.033, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

2.19 Subd. 13. Electric utility service notice; cost impact. ~~At least 60 days before a~~
2.20 ~~petition is filed under section 414.0325 or this section, the petitioner must notify the~~
2.21 ~~municipality that the petitioner intends to file a petition for annexation.~~ At least 30 days
2.22 before a petition is filed for annexation, the petitioner must be notified by the municipality
2.23 that the cost of electric utility service to the petitioner may change if the land is annexed to
2.24 the municipality. The notice must include an estimate of the cost impact of any change
2.25 in electric utility services, including rate changes and assessments, resulting from the
2.26 annexation.
