3.13 in this section.

3.14 (b) The judgment debtor, the debtor's heirs, successors, legal representatives, or 3.15 assigns may redeem within one year after the day of sale, or order confirming sale if the

3.33 580.02 REQUISITES FOR FORECLOSURE.

4.1 To entitle any party to make such foreclosure, it is requisite:

4.2 (1) that some default in a condition of such mortgage has occurred, by which the 4.3 power to sell has become operative;

4.4 (2) that no action or proceeding has been instituted at law to recover the debt then 4.5 remaining secured by such mortgage, or any part thereof, or, if the action or proceeding 4.6 has been instituted, that the same has been discontinued, or that an execution upon the 4.7 judgment rendered therein has been returned unsatisfied, in whole or in part;

4.8 (3) that the mortgage has been recorded and, if it has been assigned, that all 4.9 assignments thereof have been recorded; provided, that, if the mortgage is upon registered 4.10 land, it shall be sufficient if the mortgage and all assignments thereof have been duly 4.11 registered; and

4.12 (4) before the notice of pendency as required under section 580.032 is recorded, the 4.13 party has complied with section 580.021.

4.14 Sec. 7. [580.021] FORECLOSURE PREVENTION COUNSELING.

4.15 Subdivision 1. Applicability. This section applies to foreclosure of mortgages under 4.16 this chapter on property consisting of one to four family dwelling units, one of which 4.17 the owner occupies as the owner's principal place of residency on the date of service of 4.18 the notice of sale of the owner.

4.19 Subd. 2. Requirement to provide notice of opportunity for counseling. When 4.20 the written notice required under section 47.20, subdivision 8, is provided and before the 4.21 notice of pendency under section 580.032, subdivision 3, is recorded, a party foreclosing
4.22 on a mortgage must provide to the mortgagor information contained in a form prescribed 4.23 in section 580.022, subdivision 1, that:

4.24 (1) foreclosure prevention counseling services provided by an authorized foreclosure 4.25 prevention agency are available; and

4.26 (2) notice that the party will transmit the homeowner's name, address, and telephone 4.27 number to an approved foreclosure prevention agency.

4.28 Nothing in this subdivision prohibits the notices required by this subdivision 4.29 from being provided concurrently with the written notice required under section 47.20, 4.30 subdivision 8.

4.31 For the purposes of this section, an "authorized foreclosure counseling agency" is a 4.32 nonprofit or government agency approved by the United States Department of Housing 4.33 and Urban Development or funded by the Minnesota Housing Finance Agency to provide 4.34 foreclosure prevention counseling services.

5.1 Subd. 3. Notification to authorized counseling agency. The party entitled to 5.2 foreclose shall, within one week of sending the notice prescribed in section 580.022,

 5.7 or the mortgagor's authorized representative and agrees to provide foreclosure prevention 5.8 assistance services to the mortgagor or representative must provide the form prescribed in 5.9 section 580.022 to the mortgagee. The form serves as notice to the mortgagee that the 5.10 mortgagor is receiving foreclosure prevention counseling assistance.

5.11 (b) The mortgagee must return the form to the authorized foreclosure prevention 5.12 agency within 15 days of receipt of the form with the name and telephone number of the 5.13 mortgagee's agent. The agent must be a person authorized by the mortgagee to:

5.14 (1) discuss with the authorized foreclosure prevention agency or the mortgagor 5.15 the terms of the mortgage; and 5.16 (2) negotiate any resolution to the mortgagor's default.

5.17 (c) Nothing in this subdivision requires a mortgagee to reach a resolution relating to 5.18 the mortgagor's default.

7.17 Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 580.041, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

7.18 Subd. 1b. Form and delivery of notice. The notice required by this section must 7.19 be in 14-point boldface type and must be printed on colored paper that is other than the 7.20 color of the notice of foreclosure and that does not obscure or overshadow the content of 7.21 the notice. The title of the notice must be in 20-point boldface type. The notice must be 7.22 on its own page. The notice required by this section must be delivered with the notice of 7.23 foreclosure required by sections 580.03 and 580.04. The notice required by this section 7.24 also must be delivered with each subsequent written communication regarding the

 7.26 except that a person may not be held liable in an action brought under this section for a 7.27 violation of this section for failure to deliver the subsequent notices if the person shows by 7.28 a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona 7.29 fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adopted to avoid the 7.30 error. A foreclosing mortgagee will be deemed to have complied with this section if it 7.31 sends the notice required by this section at least once every 60 days during the period of 7.32 the foreclosure process. The notice required by this section must not be published.

8.1 Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 580.041, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

9.7 have the right to "redeem." Redeem means that you pay off the entire loan amount 9.8 plus fees to keep your house. You can keep living in your home for a period of time.
9.9 This is called a "redemption period." The redemption period is [insert number of 9.10 months] months after the sheriff's sale. This redemption period is your chance to 9.11 try and sell your home or refinance it with a different loan. You can also pay the 9.12 redemption amount with any other funds you have available. At the end of the 9.13 redemption period you will have to leave your home. If you do not, the person or 9.14 company that bid on your home at the sheriff's sale has the right to file an eviction 9.15 against you in district court."

9.16 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective for notices served under section 9.20 under this chapter.

9.21 Subd. 2. Form of delivery of notice. The notice required by this section must be in 9.22 14-point boldface type and must be printed on colored paper that is other than the color of 9.23 the notice of foreclosure and of the notice to be given under section 580.041, subdivision 9.24 1b, and that does not obscure or overshadow the content of the notice. The title of the 9.25 notice must be in 20-point boldface type. The notice must be on its own page.

9.26 Subd. 3. Content of notice. The notice required by this section must appear 9.27 substantially as follows.

9.28 "Foreclosure: Advice to Tenants

9.29 You are renting in a property that is in foreclosure. Minnesota law requires that we 9.30 send you this notice about the foreclosure process. Please read it carefully.

9.31 The mortgage foreclosure does not change the terms of your lease. You and 9.32 your landlord must continue to follow the terms of your lease, including the rights
9.33 and responsibilities of you and your landlord. You must keep paying rent unless you 9.34 have a legal reason to withhold it. Your landlord must keep the property repaired.
9.35 Utilities must be paid under the terms of your lease or under state law.

10.1 Moving out of the property early might be a violation of your lease. The date
10.2 of the sheriff's foreclosure sale is in the attached foreclosure notice. In most cases you 10.3 do not need to move from the property before the sheriff's foreclosure sale. Read your 10.4 lease to see if it says anything about foreclosure and about the rights you may have if the 10.5 property is in foreclosure. If you have a month-to-month lease, the foreclosure notice does 10.6 not change the rules for ending your lease. You and your landlord must still give legal 10.7 notice to end your lease.

10.8 In most cases, your landlord has six months after the date of the sheriff's foreclosure
10.9 sale to pay off the mortgage. This is called the "redemption period." Read the attached 10.10 foreclosure notice to determine the length of the redemption period. You cannot be asked 10.11 to move during the redemption period except for lease violations or if your lease expires 10.12 during the redemption period. If your landlord stops the foreclosure, you may not have to 10.13 move from the property. If your landlord does not stop the foreclosure, there will be a new 10.14 owner of the property at the end of the redemption period.

10.15 The new owner may have the legal right to ask you to move even if your lease is 10.16 not over. But, the new owner must still give you a written notice stating that the new 10.17 owner wants you to move.

10.18 Do not wait to get information about foreclosure. Mortgage foreclosure is a 10.19 complicated process. It is important you learn about your rights as a renter when there 10.20 is a mortgage foreclosure. You may have fewer options if you wait too long. There 10.21 are government agencies and nonprofit organizations that you may contact for helpful 10.22 information about the foreclosure process. For the name and telephone number of an 10.23 organization near you, please call the legal aid office or bar association office in your 10.24 county. You also can find information on tenant rights at HOME Line at (866) 866-3546
10.25 and Law Help Minnesota at <http://www.LawHelpMN.org>. The state of Minnesota does 10.26 not guarantee the advice of these agencies and organizations."

10.27 Subd. 4. Affidavit. Any person may establish compliance with or inapplicability of 10.28 this section by recording, with the county recorder or registrar of titles, an affidavit by 10.29 a person having knowledge of the facts, stating that the notice required by this section
10.30 has been delivered in compliance with this section. The affidavit and a certified copy 10.31 of a recorded affidavit is prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the affidavit. The 10.32 affidavit may be recorded regarding any foreclosure sale, including foreclosure sales 10.33 that occurred prior to August 1, 2008, and may be recorded separately or as part of the 10.34 record of a foreclosure.

10.35 Subd. 5. Validation of foreclosure sales; remedy for violation. (a) No mortgage 10.36 foreclosure sale under this chapter is invalid because of failure to comply with this section.

11.1 (b) The remedy for a violation of this section is limited to actual damages caused by 11.2 the violation, not to exceed $1,000, and is available only to the tenant of the mortgaged 11.3 premises who occupied the mortgaged premises during the redemption period of the 11.4 mortgagor. Any legal action brought to enforce the provisions of this section must be 11.5 commenced by the last day of the redemption period of the mortgagor. A person is not 11.6 liable in an action for a violation of this section if the person shows by a preponderance of 11.7 the evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error and 11.8 the person adopted and maintained reasonable procedures to avoid the error. A plaintiff 11.9 does not have cause of action if the defendant has complied with section 580.03.

11.10 Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 580.06, is amended to read:
