5.27 (e) Any person aggrieved by either a retaliatory personnel action in violation of this 5.28 section or by an employer's failure to provide paid sick leave as required by this section
5.29 may file a complaint with the attorney general. The filing of a complaint with the attorney 5.30 general does not preclude the filing of a civil action pursuant to this subdivision.

5.31 (f) The attorney general may bring a civil action to enforce this section. The attorney 5.32 general may seek injunctive relief. In addition to injunctive relief, or in lieu thereof, for 6.7 disclosed except to the affected employee or with the permission of the affected employee.

6.8 Subd. 10. Encouragement of more generous leave policies. (a) Nothing in this 6.9 section shall be construed to discourage or prohibit an employer from the adoption or 6.10 retention of a paid leave policy more generous than the one required by this section.

6.11 (b) Nothing in this section shall be construed as diminishing the obligation of an 6.12 employer to comply with any contract, collective bargaining agreement, employment 6.13 benefit plan, or other agreement providing more generous leave to an employee than 6.14 required by this section.

6.15 (c) Nothing in this section shall be construed as diminishing the rights of public 6.16 employees regarding paid sick leave or use of sick leave as provided in section 43A.1815.

6.17 Sec. 3. SEVERABILITY.

6.18 If any provision of section 2 or application thereof to any person or circumstance is
