(a) Midway through a judge's term and again no fewer than nine 9.1 months before the date of the election for retention of the judge's position, the commission 9.2 must distribute anonymous survey forms eliciting performance evaluations of the judge to 9.3 a representative sampling of attorneys, litigants, other judges, and other persons who have 9.4 been in direct contact with the judge being evaluated and who have direct knowledge of 9.5 the judge's judicial performance during the evaluation period. 9.6 9.7 (b) The commission must employ or contract with qualified individuals to prepare survey forms, process responses, and compile the statistical reports of the survey results in 9.8 9.9 a manner that ensures confidentiality and accuracy. Narrative comments contained in a survey response are private data on the judge, as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 12. Subd. 7. Midterm evaluation. The commission shall evaluate each judge halfway 9.16 through the judge's term, as nearly as practicable, to provide feedback to the judge about 9.17 the judge's performance and to give the judge an opportunity for improvement. The 9.18 commission shall adopt procedures for conducting the midterm evaluation. 9.19 Subd. 8. Retention-year evaluation. (a) In each year in which a judge has the 9.20 opportunity to file as a candidate for retention, the Independent Judicial Performance 9.21 Evaluation Commission must conduct a final evaluation of the judge and determine 9.22 9.23 whether the judge meets or does not meet judicial performance standards. Upon completion of the evaluation, the commission must rate the judge "well-qualified," 9.24 "qualified," or "unqualified" for office. A rating of "unqualified" does not prohibit a judge 9.25 from seeking retention by the voters. 9.26 (b) The final evaluation of a judge must include a public hearing and an opportunity 9.27 for submission of written public comments on the performance of a judge standing for 9.28 retention. An evaluation panel is composed of five members, including at least one member appointed by each branch of government, but otherwise chosen randomly. A panel must report its results to the full commission. The full commission shall review a panel's evaluation if the panel rates a judge unqualified, or if one panelist or three members of the commission request a review within 15 days after the panel makes its report. The commission may overturn a panel's rating. If a panel's report and rating is not reviewed, the determination of the panel is final. Decisions of an evaluation panel or the full commission regarding a judge's performance are not subject to judicial review.

(b) If an evaluation is reviewed by the full commission, the commission shall provide written notice to the affected judge. The judge has the right to submit written comments to the commission and to appear and be heard by the commission before a final vote of the commission members regarding the judge's performance.

Subd. 10. Publication of evaluation results. Following the final evaluation of a judge, the commission shall compile a factual report on the judicial performance of each judge intending to stand for retention, including the final rating assigned to the judge's performance. The report must be made available to the public at least one month before the time period established in section 204B.09 for filing an affidavit of candidacy with the secretary of state.
