BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 2014, section 211B.15, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. Shareholder consent. (a) A corporation may not make a contribution, expenditure, or independent expenditure for political purposes unless all shareholders of the corporation have approved the contribution, expenditure, or independent expenditure by majority vote, and each individual shareholder whose proportional share of the corporation's profits will be used for the contribution, expenditure, or independent expenditure has consented to use of their profit interest for that purpose. The vote and consent procedure must be conducted according to the rules and bylaws of the corporation, and may authorize a specific contribution, expenditure, or independent expenditure, or may authorize a total budget for all contributions, expenditures, and independent expenditures by the corporation in a calendar year.

(b) As used in this subdivision, "shareholders" means, in the case of a corporation registered to do business in this state, all shareholders of the corporation residing in the state; in the case of a corporation incorporated in this state, all shareholders of the corporation; and in the case of a partnership registered to do business in this state, all partners.

(c) Nothing in this subdivision authorizes a corporation to make a contribution, expenditure, or independent expenditure that is not otherwise authorized by law.
Sec. 2. [211B.155] CONTRIBUTIONS, EXPENDITURES, OR INDEPENDENT EXPENDITURES BY PENSION TRUST FUNDS AND MONEY MARKET FUNDS.

Subdivision 1. Pension trust funds. A pension trust fund may not make a contribution, expenditure, or independent expenditure for political purposes unless all active members and beneficiaries have approved the contribution, expenditure, or independent expenditure by majority vote, and each individual active member or beneficiary whose proportional interest in the fund's earnings will be used for the contribution, expenditure, or independent expenditure has consented to use of their interest for that purpose. The vote and consent procedure must be conducted according to the rules and bylaws of the fund, and may authorize a specific contribution, expenditure, or independent expenditure, or may authorize a total budget for all contributions, expenditures, and independent expenditures by the fund in a calendar year.

Subd. 2. Money market funds. A money market fund may not make a contribution, expenditure, or independent expenditure for political purposes unless all shareholders of the fund have approved the contribution, expenditure, or independent expenditure by majority vote, and each individual shareholder whose proportional interest in the fund's earnings will be used for the contribution, expenditure, or independent expenditure has consented to use of their interest for that purpose. The vote and consent procedure must be conducted according to the rules and bylaws of the fund, and may authorize a specific contribution, expenditure, or independent expenditure, or may authorize a total budget for all contributions, expenditures, and independent expenditures by the fund in a calendar year.

Subd. 3. Penalties. The penalties and remedy procedures provided in section 211B.15 related to political activity by corporations and individuals acting on behalf of a corporation apply to violations of this section by a pension trust fund or money market fund, and individuals acting on behalf of a pension trust fund or money market fund.

Subd. 4. Limitation. Nothing in this section authorizes a pension trust fund or money market fund to make a contribution, expenditure, or independent expenditure that is not otherwise authorized by law.
